

HELP FOR PEOPLE IN CRISIS

You don't have to manage a crisis on your own. At Foundation 2, we provide trained, compassionate counselors to help you make it through the difficult time you're facing.

People reach out to the crisis center for a number of reasons, whether it's discussing thoughts of suicide, depression or anxiety, or finding help to mediate family conflicts. There is no "wrong" reason to call, and help is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

If you're facing a crisis, connect with the Foundation 2 Crisis Center at (319) 362-2174 locally, or toll-free at 1 (800) 332-4224.

HOW CAN I HELP?

Volunteer needs are listed on our website at foundation2.org.

If you wish to make a pledge, donations are accepted online. Visit our website for more information.

"The Crisis Center is a place where I feel understood and supported. The counselors on the Crisis Line have made a world of difference in my life."

You are not alone.

WHAT IS A CRISIS?

A crisis occurs when stress or pressure becomes too great to cope with alone. Sometimes it's triggered by a major loss like the death of a loved one, a divorce, or a serious illness. Other times it's a series of smaller problems that overwhelm you, or a negative feeling you can't shake.

"Crisis"

means something different to everyone, and it can affect families or individuals at any age, at any time.

ABOUT FOUNDATION 2

The mission of Foundation 2 is to be a trusted, compassionate resource for people in crisis offering counseling, safety and support during difficult times.

FOUNDATION 2 BELIEVES:

- People have the potential for positive change.
- People have a right to services to help them cope with crisis.
- The definition of crisis may vary with each individual.
- People of all ages, backgrounds, and orientations have the right to be treated with compassion, respect and dignity.
- People are entitled to a safe environment.
- Conflict is best resolved through peaceful, non-violent means.
- Services should be provided in the least restrictive environment that meets the need.
- Most suicides are preventable.
- Ultimate responsibility for decisions rests with each individual.
